

NEWS

Meet Metropolis at WUF7! Final countdown!

The WUF7 will be hosting Metropolis' open networking event titled: "Equitable Metropolises: fixing spatial, social and economic inequalities through integrated governance, planning and developing" on Wednesday 9 April at 4.30pm.

You can learn more on the session and which political leaders will showcase their experiences by reading the flyer of the event.

The session will be divided into two main dialogues and aim to agree on key recommendations to central and local authorities on how to improve democracy and accountability in metropolitan management for more equitable access to opportunities and also on multilevel metropolitan planning for sustainable economic and social prosperity.

In addition, Metropolis will have a booth at Plaza Mayor in the White Pavilion, booth nº14.

The Metropolis Initiative led by the Cátedra Medellín-Barcelona will be discussing on “City, Gastronomy and Equity” at Salon Colombia on 9th April at 5.30pm. Check the invitation to this event!.

Check the full map and list of exhibitors

Discover here the full list of membership activities

About the WUF7

UN-Habitat jointly with the City of Medellín will celebrate the 7th Session of the World Urban Forum (WUF) on 5-11 April in Medellín under the theme “Urban Equity in Development - Cities for Life”.

We look very much forward to seeing you all in Medellín!