Meeting in Brussels with the ad interim Treasurer of Metropolis

The President of Metropolis, Jean-Paul Huchon, and the Secretary General Alain Le Saux, met today in Brussels for the first time with the new treasurer of Metropolis, Jean-Luc Vanraes.

The meeting that took place at the headquarters of the General Directorate for External Relations of the Brussels Regional Public Service also served for the treasurer to revise the current financial status of Metropolis. Jean-Luc Vanraes has taken charge of the Metropolis treasury temporarily, until next October. At the next Metropolis Congress in Hyderabad, he will be responsible for presenting and submitting the balance sheet for the approval of the Metropolis members that compose the General Assembly.

Mr. Jean-Luc Vanraes is the President of the Parliament of the Flemish Community Commission (VGC) and former Minister responsible for finance, budget, and external relations of the Brussels-Capital Region. Download Mr. Vanraes' CV here.
