T20 Talks

22 Jun. 2020

In the age of fast growth of modern technology, decision makers of cities are increasingly focusing on smart city solutions, while sustainable and green development of a city has been acting as a core in urban governance. Nanjing Municipal Government is planning to launch an association named as T20, consisting of worldwide cities, research institutes, enterprises and international organizations etc. It will be a multilateral platform for know-how sharing, start-ups supporting, and technology and business promotion.

In order to demonstrate the association's model way of multilateral exchange and cooperation to our strategic partners, Nanjing Municipal Government is going to host T20 Talks this year, a webinar focusing on sharing of case studies of urban governance.
