Coproducing Urban Security Policies

15-17 november 2017
DHUB, Barcelona

Save the date for the international and interdisciplinary conference on the coproduction of urban security policies, organised by the European Forum for Urban Security, the Government of Catalonia and the City of Barcelona. This event will also mark the 30th anniversary of Efus' founding. Together, let's start preparing this unique event that will gather: elected officials, civil servants, magistrates, social workers, researchers, and private sector and civil society representatives.

Security, Democracy & Cities Conference

15 Nov. 2017

The governance of security will be one of the cross-cutting issues of this event, which will address the sharing of responsibilities across different levels of government — local, regional, national and supranational — as well as the increased involvement of the private sector and civil society, citizens in particular, in security policies.

Unique in its field, this event is geared towards all those involved in urban security: elected officials, civil servants, magistrates, security services, social workers, researchers, and representatives of the private sector and civil society. Some 800 participants from around the world are expected to attend.
