

Moscow Urban Forum 2017: Age of Agglomerations. Rethinking the World Map.

06 Jul. 2017

Moscow Urban Forum 2017: Age of Agglomerations. Rethinking the World Map.

It is the largest international congress on the development challenges of global megacities. The Forum has been held annually since 2011.

MUF brings together representatives of city administrations of Russia and the world, architects, urban planners, developers, heads of financial companies, investors, technological startups, media representatives and average citizens.