1er Foro metropolitano de Sevilla

17 Mar. 2021

17 Mar. 2021

The Seville City Council, through the Seville 2030 Strategic Plan, and the Pablo de Olavide University, within the framework of the "MetopoliAnd_" project, have organized this "First Seville Metropolitan Forum", which is intended to be a permanent space for public-private debate between the governments of the metropolitan municipalities and civil society.

Mr. Octavi de la Varga, as the Metropolis Secretary General will be part, together with other experts, in one of the debates focused on the main trends and challenges that metropolises are facing nowadays.
