

Chicago Forum on Global Cities 2018

06 Jun. 2018

SOLVING THE WORLD'S BIGGEST CHALLENGES TAKES TIME. START WITH THREE DAYS IN CHICAGO.

The Chicago Forum on Global Cities, hosted by the Chicago Council on Global Affairs and the Financial Times, is a three-day international conference that raises provocative questions about the influence of global cities and how they can solve pressing global challenges. Participating thought leaders and decision makers create new connections and develop innovative solutions to advance in their own cities.

THE FORUM IS A PLACE WHERE BIG THINGS HAPPEN.

Global cities are on the front lines of the world's most pressing challenges: they are targets of terrorism, vulnerable to natural disasters, fraught with inequality, and plagued by urban violence. They are also at the center of the most innovative solutions.

Through in-depth panels moderated by Financial Times journalists, intimate discussions, innovative flash talks, intensive workshops, and informal networking – Forum participants will garner new ideas and understanding to improve the efficacy of urban networks, management, and design.
