

INTERNATIONAL
CALENDAR

Digital Citymakers' Summit: Just Cities - Urban development and the common good

25 Mar. 2021
25 Mar. 2021

Sustainable urban development is committed to the common good. But what approaches and strategies can be used to turn this commitment into good urban practice? How does the guiding principle of the “Just City” become a reality in sustainable urban development projects – especially in light of the challenges brought about by the COVID-19 pandemic?

Hosted by the use platform, the Digital Citymakers’ Summit will provide not only valuable insights on what the “Just City” of the future might look like, but also plenty of opportunities for exchange with fellow city makers.

Learn about inspiring projects, policies, and knowledge resources and meet key actors in the field of sustainable urban development from around the globe!

When? Thursday March 25, 2021, 2-4 pm (CET)

- PROGRAMME overview
- +Info about SESSIONS & SPEAKERS
- REGISTER NOW! (participation is free of charge, but access to specific sessions is limited. Please register by March, 18, 2021)

For further information, please click here or contact: use.info@metropolis.org